Please tell us about yourself and why you want to serve.

I am eager to serve on the Wauwatosa Youth Commission because I believe in the power of informed discussion and civic engagement to shape our community. As a freshman, I have actively developed my skills in debate, forensics, and Science Olympiad, honing my ability to think critically, analyze complex issues, and communicate effectively. As the president of the Latin Club, I have experienced firsthand the value of leadership and collaboration in bringing ideas to life. I have also contributed to my hockey team as a center on the JV team. My interest in law and finance drives me to understand how policies impact individuals and communities. Youth voices should be heard in discussions about governance, and I want to contribute by applying my analytical skills to advocate for meaningful initiatives. The Youth Commission provides a unique opportunity to engage with city leaders, address concerns affecting young people, and develop solutions that have a lasting impact. By serving on this commission, I hope to bring fresh perspectives, thoughtful dialogue, and a commitment to making Wauwatosa a place where youth feel empowered and engaged in civic life.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Diane Doll, and I am the managing member at EverVet. I'm writing on behalf of Abhiv eer Kalirawana who is applying to your Summer Youth Institute's program. I have known Abhiv eer since he was born as I have been working for his parents for the last 14 years. I have watched Abhiv eer grow up over this time, and he constantly impresses me with his intelligence and dedication to his schoolwork.

Abhiv eer puts his complete effort into any activity that he does from schoolwork to hockey to Latin club- I have never seen a child work as hard as he does at such a young age. He is constantly studying and using his free time effectively to produce better results in his schoolwork. He follows through and commits himself to do the best he can possibly do and get the most out of any activity he is participating in. He has done well in his team sports and clubs to work with other individuals that have the same goals. He is a dependable group member that does not let team members down.

Abhiv eer has my strong endorsement for admission into your summer program. Based on his passion and dedication to learning, he would really excel in the program. If you have further questions or want any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me. You may call me anytime to discuss it further at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Diane Doll with EverVet
