I founded Prestige Law Office, LLC, a boutique law firm dedicated to serving individuals, entrepreneurs, and small to mid-sized businesses. My practice focuses on business law, dental transition law, international trade, estate planning, and probate matters. By carefully managing my caseload, I ensure that each client receives personalized attention and a tailored legal strategy. I am committed to providing clear, practical guidance on complex legal issues, and I offer fixed flat fees—never hourly billing—to accommodate my clients' needs and budgets. I am interested in serving as an alternate member of the City of Wauwatosa Board of Review because I value civic engagement and I am eager to contribute meaningfully to my community.
