To Whom It May Concern:

I am the recovery support coordinator (RSC) working with Nicole Bence now for a while. Nicole is a dedicated and motivated individual and has made great strides in turning her life around. She attends all scheduled appointments, accomplishes the goals she sets, and is a role model in her community. I have no doubt she would be able to handle this responsibility with great care.

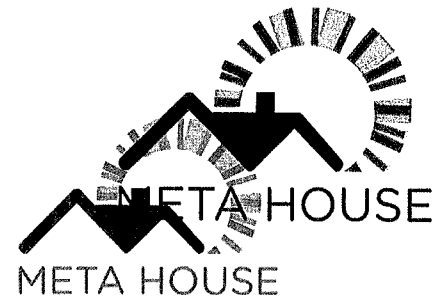

If you have any questions or concerns that you want to discuss with me, I would be happy to do so.

Thank you,

Jordan Hoelscher
